

Fee Reconsideration

Under Exceptional Circumstances

TO THE STUDENT

Applications to withdraw after the refund period must be accompanied by appropriate evidence. All applications will be considered by the Academic Director, the Faculty Dean and the Manager Academic Records and Administration (or in the case of international students the Academic Director and the Director, Business Development and Partnerships). Applications under exceptional circumstances may involve the following:

- o Illness or injury
- o Compassionate reasons
- o Events beyond the control of the student

If your application is approved you will be granted a refund or transfer of fees as stated below. You must have paid your fees before applying.

Refund	Transfer
Full or partial refund of course fees	Transfer of course fees to the next instance of the same offering

HOW TO APPLY

Complete and attach a Withdrawal Form or Change to Enrolment Form to officially withdraw from any course/s that you have been enrolled in.

Complete this form and attach documentation of appropriate evidence that will verify your reason for withdrawal under exceptional circumstances, this may include: a medical certificate from a Doctor or Health Professional, death notice or letter from a funeral director, other supporting evidence completed by an independent person, eg Minister of Religion, counsellor or NZ Justice of the Peace or similar who can certify the events you describe overleaf.
